

Are You Co-Mingling Kingdoms? is written to the woman sitting in church, knowing “about” God but not really realizing He has amazing power and a personal touch! This book will challenge every woman to re-think the influence she holds as a “Christian” woman and the impact she can make on behalf of family!

Valuable insight is provided to the woman who struggles with a worldly “social appetite” yet the “strings of morality” tug her into church every Sunday. This book is designed to initiate an awakening in women who may not realize how they are blending the mindsets of the world with the standards of God. Hence, Co-Mingling Kingdoms!
